NOTE: This is the last report from the Type II Incident Command Post. The management of the Wolf Den Fire will transition to a Type III Incident Management Team at 6:00 A.M. tomorrow morning. All future inquiries and releases will come from Kelsey Birchell.

Resources on Fire: There are 247 people assigned to the incident.

Todays Observed Activity: The mop-up standards will be met by end of shift tonight and rehabilitation of the fire lines will be 90% complete tonight.

Today's Plan: Firefighters continued extinguishing hot spots and rehabilitating firelines.

Special Concerns: Oil and gas infrastructure, cultural and historic resources, deer and elk winter range, and sage grouse habitat are at risk.

Prevention Message: Critically dry vegetation continues to be a high hazard in Utah. Fire will grow rapidly once ignited. Please use extreme care when in the wildland.
